RE: Remote Work Agreement

Dear Pulkit,

You recently notified Rajesh Bathina, your manager that you were interested in voluntarily pursuing a remote work arrangement. After discussing this with your management team, "Viasat" has approved your request to work remotely out of your home in Karnal, Haryana effective 01-Nov-2022. Viasat has the sole discretion whether to approve the request to change the location of your employment.

1. Position/ Hours: You are currently scheduled to work full time, 40 hours a week, as a Software Engineer - II based at Karnal, Haryana. Your scheduled weekly work hours will remain 40 hours per week, and it is your responsibility to:
 - a. communicate regularly with your team and manager, as well as internal clients, if any
 - b. continue to meet project timelines, requirements, and performance expectations of your role.
 - c. come to the office if required by Viasat; and
 - d. otherwise perform and make yourself available through telephone or e-mail as needed such that the geographic distance between your residence/work location and the rest of the program team does not act as an obstacle or barrier to successfully meeting all of the expectations of your role.
2. Timekeeping: You understand and agree that you will comply with Viasat's applicable timekeeping and payroll policies, including accurately recording all time in a timely manner. You will not be entitled to any overtime pay for work carried out beyond your scheduled working hours.
3. Equipment and Supplies: Viasat will provide you with the following resources for you to perform your role for the duration of your remote work arrangement:
 - a. Computer/Laptop (and anti-virus software and necessary programs)
 - b. Computer Monitor
 - c. Mouse/Keyboard
 - d. VPN Account

It is your responsibility to coordinate with the IT department to secure the items identified above by sending a request to the IT Service Desk at ITServiceDesk@Viasat.com. Any equipment supplied by Viasat for the purpose of your remote working arrangement remains the property of Viasat and is to be used solely by you and for business purposes only. If there is any necessary equipment or technology not listed here that you need for your role, please let your manager know. You must not conduct Viasat related business on electronic equipment or storage devices that are not owned by Viasat.

Further, Viasat is entitled to recover the costs from you in case of damages to any equipment issued by Viasat. You agree and acknowledge that you do not have any expectation of privacy when using Viasat's resources or network regardless of whether they are being utilized remotely. Viasat may use various modes to ensure that the internet, e-mail facilities and other communication systems provided by Viasat or being used by you for Viasat work, are used in an appropriate manner. This may include the scanning, reading, inspection, and scrutiny of emails sent and received, and websites visited or created by you including but not limited to your personal email and social media accounts using Viasat's resources or network.

You agree to promptly return all equipment listed above when your remote work arrangement ends, at separation of employment, or as may be earlier requested by Viasat.

4. Remote Work Set-Up:

- a. Internet – It is your responsibility to establish and/or maintain an acceptable high-speed data/internet connection so that you may perform your role. Security may brief individual employees on a case-by-case basis regarding shared contact information or other resources.
- b. Telephone – It is your responsibility to establish and/or maintain a method of telephonic communication so that you may perform your role. In your role, if you need to make telephone calls to other Viasat employees, please use the zoom feature or the slack calling feature on your computer device. If for whatever reason you need to make an external call for purposes of carrying out any necessary job duties and you are unable to use Zoom, Slack, or some other similar program, please let your manager know so you can discuss options.
- c. Furniture - It is your responsibility to establish and/or maintain adequate furniture needs (i.e. Desk, chair, etc.) so that you may perform your role.
- d. Any personal expenses unrelated to Viasat will not be reimbursed by Viasat. If you need anything else above and beyond what is outline here, please work with your manager to make the necessary request.

5. Home Office Safety and Security: You agree to maintain your home office in a professional and safe manner, and to implement appropriate security measures to protect Viasat's materials, confidential and proprietary information, and equipment. You are required to comply with the terms of the Employee Invention Assignment and Confidentiality the Employment Agreement and all applicable policies, as described below. All proprietary rights, proprietary information and inventions created by you during the course of employment with Viasat, irrespective of whether you use Viasat equipment / network or your own equipment / network while creating it and/or whether you created it in Viasat's office or not, is the sole and exclusive property of Viasat. Viasat may inspect your home office at a mutually agreeable time, subject to applicable law. You agree that you will take all necessary measures and precautions to ensure that no Viasat information (whether confidential or not) comes to the knowledge of and/or is disclosed to/revealed (intentionally or unintentionally) to any individual who may access your home / home office, including but not limited to your family members. You further agree and understands that Viasat will not be liable / responsible for any accident / incident / injury that occurs at your home due to your failure to maintain your home / home office in a professional and safe manner and in accordance with the statutory requirements.

6. Travel: This remote work arrangement may require up to 10% travel for business within or outside your current city or home location. You will be eligible for reimbursement for all reasonable and necessary expenses incurred while traveling for business purposes, provided they fall within Viasat's Travel Expense Reimbursement policy and receive manager approval. It will be your responsibility to develop the most convenient travel schedule possible for all parties involved (including—but not limited to—your supervisor, program manager, and program team) in order to minimize travel expenses and maximize productivity and efficiency.
7. Mailing/Home Address Use: Remote workers shall not use their personal home address for work related mailing/shipping. You have been assigned location Module1 & 2, 5th Floor, Block C, Global Infocity Park, No.40, M.G.R. Salai, Kandanchavadi, Perungudi, Chennai – 600 096 as your office. Please include address this address on your business cards, and for receiving incoming mail. Incoming mail will be sent to your home address via a central resource (admin, coordinator) within your department via scanner wherever possible. All invoices should be sent to AP. Please become familiar with the shipping process in the Work from Home policy.
8. Moving Home Location: Any address change within the city you currently reside in should be submitted via Workday. If you intend to move out of the city, please partner with your manager and P&C BP prior to doing so. Some jurisdictions require additional review of payroll requirements and review of compensation.
9. Status Updates: You agree to partner closely with your manager and any project or team leaders to whom you are responsible to regularly communicate any necessary status updates or other information to keep your manager/leaders updated with your work and to keep the lines of communication open as you would if you were working in the office.
10. You are required to ensure you have care in place for children, elderly or any other family members while you work remotely. This arrangement is not a replacement for child or elder care. If you need further support / options, please check out our benefits page on the wiki or speak to your P&C Business Partner.
11. You acknowledge and agree that it is not necessary for you to work remotely, however, you are requesting to do so for your own convenience and / or preference. In exchange for granting your personal request to work remotely from Karnal, Haryana and allowing you to work outside your original work location in Chennai, you irrevocably and unconditionally waive and release Viasat from any claims or causes of action in relation to benefits or entitlements applicable to employees in Haryana.
12. Discretionary Arrangement: As with all remote work arrangements, this will be considered a temporary arrangement, and is subject to review by your management team and/or the P&C department on a regular basis, at which point you and your manager can determine whether this arrangement should be modified, continued, or discontinued based on the success of the arrangement and other needs of the business, subject to applicable law. In accordance with applicable law, Viasat reserves the right to revoke the arrangement if it is determined you are not meeting the expectations of your role, the arrangement is otherwise unsuccessful, or the arrangement no longer meets the needs of the business, or if the applicable government/labor laws require working from offices.

13. No alteration in benefits. Except as stated above, all other terms and conditions of your employment as set out in your Employment Agreement will remain unchanged. You agree that a change in location does not alter your existing entitlements (including but not limited to leave plans, paid holidays etc.) and you understand that your benefits remain unchanged. Viasat retains the right to appropriately modify or alter your pay and allowances bearing in mind your remote work location, including but not limited to any onsite benefits or allowances.

14. Tax Deductions. You acknowledge that the implications for home office tax deductions under applicable law are your responsibility. Viasat makes no recommendation whether your home office will qualify for such deductions and urges you to seek the advice of a professional tax consultant to determine eligibility for any tax deductions.

If you have any questions or would like to further discuss any of the benefits above, please contact me at +91 9885154274.

Please acknowledge your understanding of the above information and your review of the Viasat work from home policy by signing below.

Sincerely,
